What participants say:

"My first step to feeling part of this community.
Very important that I felt welcomed right away."

"I appreciate the diversity, the engaging stories, triggering thinking in profound ways."

"Community building. We don't have this in other parts of our lives. Unusual to meet for two hours in this structured way, around a given topic, consistently rich and potent."

"I have been in groups for ten years. It doesn't get old.
It's always new. It becomes personal and intimate; we have to trust in order for that to happen."

"I was touched by the intimate space we created. During check-in we mentioned things that are not mentioned out there. It was an intimate sharing, a space we created. It was great to see when the space became safe. It was magical – the space groups create – it was touching and beautiful.
I am grateful."

"It was a space in my life where I felt without judgement, without a filter, where I felt myself. Just myself, judgement-free."

"This was a confederation of folks who want to be there."

"The group is a place where I could let my life speak, where I could be my true self."

"I have been touched by some souls. You can come and be yourself. It has been amazing. I carry you home with me."

Listen

with your heart

- Encourage personal connections that foster a sense of the larger meaning of life.
- Engage willingly in deep listening.
- Learn to focus your attention only on the person who is speaking, without thinking of a response.

Hearing is one of the body's five senses. But listening is an art.

-- Frank Tyger

The more and more you listen, the more and more you will hear.

The more you hear, the more and more deeply you will understand.

-- Jamyang Kyentse
Rinpoche

Small Group Circles is a program of the Unitarian Society of Northampton and Florence. Groups are open to anyone.

Speak

from your heart

- Tell your story openly, in a safe, supportive environment.
- Share with others your personal search for truth and meaning.
- Speak from the wisdom of the heart.

We all need friends with whom we can speak of our deepest concerns, and who do not fear to speak the truth in love to us.

-- Margaret Guenther

When we speak from the heart, we are listening to our soul.

-- Robert Gerard

Heard

- Participate in promoting mutual care for others and shared spiritual growth.
- Create personal connections that foster your sense of community.
- Explore bedrock questions of life and faith in a supportive environment.

The friends who listen to us are the ones we move toward. When we are heard, it creates us, makes us unfold and expand.

-- Karl Menninger

When you speak to me about your deepest questions, you do not want to be fixed or saved: you want to be seen and heard, to have your truth acknowledged and honored.

-- Parker Palmer

How Small Group Circles Work

Groups of up to nine members and a facilitator meet monthly, from October through June. Members commit to attend meetings and be present in mind and spirit.

The format includes opening words, a brief sitting in silence, readings, reflection, sharing thoughts and feelings about the topic and closing words.
